

Week beginning
18.02.19	Issues of Human Rights Revise key words and quotes	Learn what we mean by human rights and Christian and Hindu responses to prejudice	Learn Christian and Hindu responses to social justice (Gandhi and Oscar Romero)	Learn Christian and Hindu responses to the use of wealth – why might they spend their money in this way?	Learn personal conviction and examples of when this might clash with the law eg Martin Luther King
25.02.19	Relationships Revise key words and quotes	Learn key elements of wedding ceremonies and the importance of marriage	Learn attitudes to sex and marriage and contraception	Learn attitudes to cohabitation, divorce and adultery – how have these views changed in society?	Learn attitudes to same sex relationships and attitudes to women
4.03.19	Issues of Life and Death Revise key words and quotes	Learn key elements of the Christian, Hindu and Scientific creation stories and attitudes to stewardship and dominion.	Learn attitudes to euthanasia and abortion.	Learn key elements of funeral rites – make sure you can explain why these rituals might take place.	Learn key beliefs about the afterlife.
11.04.19	Christian beliefs Revise key words and quotes	Learn Christian teachings about God and the Trinity (Make sure you cover the incarnation and the nature of God)	Learn Christian teachings about Creation of the world	Review Christian teachings about the afterlife	Create a mind map showing everything you know about Christian beliefs – do it without your revision notes then add in anything you have forgotten.
18.04.19	Christian practices Revise key words and quotes	Review different types of worship and the importance of worship	Revise reasons for pilgrimage and the importance of Taize and Walsingham. Re cap the importance of Christmas and Easter.	Revise the sacraments – Eucharist and baptism. Make sure you understand the different ways they are celebrated.	Make sure you understand the importance of evangelism, the church community and the work of the Council of Churches.
25.04.19	Hindu beliefs Learn key words and quotes	Learn about Hindu beliefs about Brahman, the Trimurti and Shakti	Learn about Hindu views on creation, the universe	Revise Hindu teachings about the purpose of life and the afterlife.	Review Hindu beliefs – create a mind map showing key areas covered.

ASPIRE

ACHIEVEMENT * SUPPORT * PERSEVERANCE * INDIVIDUALITY * RESPECT * EXCELLENCE

1.4.19	Hindu Practices Learn key words and quotes	Review Hindu worship in the home and the Mandir.	Revise Hindu festivals and pilgrimage – why are they important?	Learn key facts about Hindu charities – Vrindavan, ISKON Food for Life and Goshallas. Why are they important?	Review Hindu practices – why are all these activities important to Hindus? How might they influence the life of a believer?
8.4.19	Use PLC results from PPE to identify two weak areas.	Create mind map/overview of these key areas to help with revision	Make a list of the quotes that link to these weakest areas - you could use flash cards to help you learn them	Create a list of key words linked to these weakest areas; make sure you can write definitions for them all.	Look back at the different ways of revising we have looked at in lessons – use one of these ways to help you focus on your two areas of weakness
15.4.19	Use PLC results from PPE to identify two more weak areas.	Create mind map/overview of these key areas to help with revision	Make a list of the quotes that link to these weakest areas - you could use flash cards to help you learn them	Create a list of key words linked to these weakest areas; make sure you can write definitions for them all.	Look back at the different ways of revising we have looked at in lessons – use one of these ways to help you focus on your two areas of weakness
22.4.19	Issues of Good and Evil Revise key words and quotes	Learn Christian and Hindu attitudes to punishment including capital punishment	Learn attitudes to freewill – how might it influence the life of a believer?	Learn Christian and Hindu responses to suffering and evil (can God still exist if there is suffering in the world?)	Learn Christian and Hindu beliefs about forgiveness – can you explain examples of people who showed forgiveness?
29.4.19	Re cap Relationships and Human Rights units – make sure you can define all the key words and have quotes to use in each unit	Have a go at some practice questions from each unit – plan out your answers with bullet points	Try working with a partner and test each other on key words and quotes – can you challenge each other to explain beliefs about key concepts?	Make a list of everything covered in each of these units, then add the Christian and Hindu views about each of these areas – try to do this without your revision notes.

6.4.19	Re cap Life and Death and Good and Evil units – make sure you can define all the key words and have quotes to use in each unit.	Have a go at some practice questions from each unit – plan out your answers with bullet points	Try working with a partner and test each other on key words and quotes – can you challenge each other to explain beliefs about key concepts?	Make a list of everything covered in each of these units, then add the Christian and Hindu views about each of these areas – try to do this without your revision notes.
13.05.19	PAPER 1 MONDAY 13TH	Use the rest of this week to focus on Christianity and Hinduism	Identify weakest areas to concentrate on – make sure you feel confident about key quotes and which concepts they link to	Have a go at some practice questions to help build you confidence – try to answer them with out revision notes to help you.
20.05.19	PAPER 2 MONDAY 20TH				