A vacancy has arisen within the college for a Special Educational Needs and Disability Teaching Assistant to work primarily within the Humanities Faculty. We are looking to appoint a skilled and enthusiastic Teaching Assistant to support children in KS3 and KS4 with a particular emphasis on humanities support. You will be based daily in the Humanities Faculty. Ideally, you will have a degree in a humanities related subject.

Candidates must have good basic literacy and numeracy skills (to GCSE level or above) and be able to communicate effectively both orally and in writing. This is an ideal post for someone considering teaching as a career.

We would love to hear from you if you have the skills and experience from our Person Specification/Role Profile and:

- are committed to helping all students achieve their maximum potential
- are organised and work well under pressure
- are a supportive, proactive team player
- are flexible in your approach to working
- have a warm & approachable manner
- have a degree or further study in a humanities field

The Henry Cort Community College is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Due to this post having access to children and/or vulnerable adults, candidates will be required to undertake a Disclosure and Barring Service check.

Application Forms and supporting documentation can be found on the college website www.henry-cort.hants.sch.uk under the Opportunities tab.
