Dear Year 7 Parents and Carers,

Lorraine Lee Parent and Carer Workshop – Supporting Your Year 7 in the Transition to Secondary School

As mentioned by Mrs Warner at the Year 6 Transition Evening, we are absolutely delighted to invite all Year 7 parents to a parent workshop led by Lorraine Lee. Lorraine is an expert in child psychology, positive parenting and child development. I have invited Lorraine into the college to lead this workshop as it will be a great opportunity for parents and carers to hear from someone with a wealth of experience in workshops designed specifically to inform, equip and support those with a role in the lives of young people.

Lorraine has led training with Henry Cort staff and this will be the fourth workshop that Lorraine will have led for us in the last 18 months. We are really pleased to be working with her as a college and have had some fantastic feedback from her previous sessions and pleasing parent attendance.

This is the first workshop to be offered specifically for Year 7 parents and the focus of the workshop is how parents and carers can support their Year 7 as they transition into secondary school. Lorraine will explore how to positively support this next step in their education as they adjust to new routines and grow in independence. This will be a useful and engaging session for all Year 7 parents whether you are seeking advice or just curious to learn more on how to positively support your Year 7 as they start secondary school.
